

— AMUNDSEN PARENT SERIES —

Navigating College Testing

• TARGETED FOR 9TH, 10TH & 11TH GRADE PARENTS •

Monday, October 23, 2023
6:30-7:30pm

Please join us for an online presentation from Joy Mollet of BEC Tutoring.

Joy has been helping Chicago families navigate the high school and college admissions process since 2014 with BEC. As a former educator and mother of five, she understands the process from both the academic and personal sides. She gladly shares her personal and professional experiences to help guide families through this stressful process.

The session will cover, among other things:

- SAT/ACT comparison
- Testing timeline
- Parent strategies for supporting students
